I have been so proud to see Kingy students open their hearts and support schools affected by the floods. What an awesome effort, raising $1022 for Condong and Tumbulgun schools who lost their libraries.

As the term progresses, many PSSA sports will be playing catch up with games, trials and carnivals across the region. Thank you to all the parents supporting our students to attend these activities. You are legends!

It has been nice to see family members dropping students off, walking to classrooms in the morning and afternoon and I notice that we are getting back into the 3pm pick up routines. I remind everyone to place their name cards on the dashboard or visor so that student names can be called to exit the school. You can print your own (large BOLD font please) or ask the office to assist you. Also please remember, the Orient Street pick up/drop off lane is a NO stopping and NO parking area at the end of each day. If you are collecting students from the laneway gate, cars must be parked elsewhere. It is important that we keep the traffic moving to avoid congestion down to the intersection. Thank you for your assistance with this safety matter.

I encourage families from K,1 and 2, to join in the community gathering on Friday afternoon (18th). The P&C is hosting a meet and greet, get to know your community, gathering this week. Come and have a cuppa and a chat, meet other families in your child's year group. Please join us in the Kindy play area this Friday, after school.

PRINCIPAL NEWS

It is lovely to be back at school. I have really felt kindness and support from staff, parents and students as many checked in with me yesterday. Through challenge we see resilience, strength and communities coming together.

I am pleased to let you know that while there is a long road ahead, my family is also moving forward. My daughter, partner and 2 dogs survived their rooftop rendezvous and after two weeks of cleaning, have set up their camper trailer in their driveway to begin the slow restoration of their home.
